

provides a multidisciplinary forum in the fields of hydraulics, mechanics and electrical engineering, ranging from latest fundamental research to industrial applications.

We welcome the submission of technical papers for the main technical track of the conference. Submission should be significant, original and previously unpublished results on all aspects of Engineering. We especially encourage papers on advanced techniques for novel application domains from following, but not limited to, areas:

Topics

- Fluid Power Research
- Transmission and Control
- Performance Monitoring, Fault diagnosis and Prediction Technology
- Reliability Research and Application
- Artificial Intelligence
- Hydraulics
- Aerodynamics
- Fluid-solid coupling
- Mechatronics
- Thermal/Fluid Mechanics
- Noise and Vibration Control
- Intelligent manufacturing and control
- Robot and application
- Additive manufacturing technology and hydraulic components
- Intelligent hydraulic components
- Energy saving and environmental protection
- Micro/nano-fluidics

Call for Papers

August, Taiyuan, China

Important Dates

Full paper submission deadline February 25, 2023

Notes

1. All review processes are blind reviews.
2. Submitted papers must be original, unpublished work. Multiple submissions are forbidden.
3. Please provide author information for contact, and remark " ICFPMCE2023+ 2-3 Journals to submit " on the headers.
4. Each accepted papers must be registered at least as one live/in-person registration, and the author has to prepare a PPT within 10 minutes.
5. If the speaker fails to appear for the presentation, all the rights covered by the registration will be jeopardized, including the right to receive a copy of the proceedings. ICFPMCE 2023 also reserves the right to exclude a paper from distribution after the conference (e.g., removal from electronic archive of past ICFPMCE 2023 proceedings) if the paper is not presented at the conference.
6. If your conference paper is selected to publish in the journals, please firstly contact ICFPMCE secretariat (icfpmce@126.com) for further instructions, as the extended versions of papers would be invited for review and potential publication.
7. The extra article processing charge for OA Journals is needed.
